Sam B. Wiles on the Pacific Railroad.

In one of his invaluable interesting letters to the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, its editor, aforesaid writes from San Francisco, about the Pacific Railroad, in the following sensible strains:

The California Pacific railroad company, led by some of the best men in the State, with Ex-Gov. Stanford for president, say calmly and distinctly, in their annual report just published, that they will take their completed line into Salt Lake City in three years from date. I believe they can and will do it, with anything like an easy money and labor market. And it is just as practicable for the road from the East to reach the Rocky mountains in twelve or eighteen months, and to span these mountains in two years more.

Next spring should see as many men at work on the eastern line as there will be on the western; the fall, fifteen to twenty thousand along its entire route; 1867 should count fifty thousand shovels and picks and drills, leveling the paths for this national highway; and in 1868 the hungry hearts of these people of the Pacific states should dance to the music of a hundred thousand strong—music sweeter far and holier even than that of all the martial bands of the new Republic. Men of the East! Men at Washington! You have given the toil and even the blood of a million of your brothers and fellows for four years, and spent three thousand million dollars, to rescue one section of the Republic from barbarism and from anarchy; and your triumph makes the cost cheap. Lend now a hand to the public; to marry to the Nation of the Atlantic and equal if not greater Nation of the Pacific. Anticipate a new sectionalism, a new strife, by a triumph of the arts of Peace, that shall be even prouder and more reaching than the victories of your Arms. Here is payment of your great debt; here is wealth unbounded; here is the completion of a Republic that is continental but you must come and take them all with the locomotive!

A woman may speak as many tongues as she will, but don't let her do it with too long a one of her own.

The Salt Lake Herald.
MONDAY, NOV. 16, 1891.
Published by J. W. BARNOW.

This policy, the prevailing and the only one which obtains extensively in Utah, possesses many curious and interesting features, which will certainly justify a brief though candid investigation. Situated as Utah was at the date of its location, in the midst of an Indian country, separated from the nearest civilized settlement by a vast chain of mountains and extensive plains, and having nothing about it likely to excite the cupidity of such as settle new countries solely from pecuniary motives, it was the spot of all others adapted to the wants of those who have since become its hierarchy, as affording some of the finest natural facilities in aid of their cherished plans, among the most prominent of which were those of gathering under their immediate personal influence those whom they could imbue with faith in their pretensions as Divinely inspired leaders of the Church, and making them the "nucleus of a kingdom" over which they purposed to hold unlimited sway.

That they have, so far, succeeded in deluding many with a marvellous amount of faith in themselves, and their glowing representations of the future greatness of those who adhere to them, is but too apparent. The bait which allures them from their homes of childhood and the associations of youth, is so charged with the elements that gratify ambition and a desire for wealth, ease and plenty, as to render it seductive as possible. And, though often disappointed in their hopes on arrival in Utah, they are so frequently surrounded by circumstances of such controlling force, that, if not further allured by promises and an ambition that makes the truth, they find it impossible or impracticable to leave the Territory; and, settling down, become so interwoven in their circumstances with the existing condition of things, and their ideas so modified by society influences, that Utah is the only country, and its usages the only customs with which they care to identify themselves.

This in itself would be but just, if they so desire, and the desire was founded in right, and based on a policy purely American; but when it is remembered that the policy to which they subscribe aims at the formation of a system of government subversive of that held by every true American dearer than life itself, it becomes highly objectionable, and demands the reprehension of every patriot. For the residents of Utah, as such, we have never entertained any but the most friendly feelings; but we can have no sympathy with the institution they support, believing as we do that it aims to absorb their own interests, and reduce them and the free people of America to a state of vassalage. Neither is our belief irrationally founded. Already have their wily leaders divulged their plan, and predicted the time when they would buy the entire people of Utah with a handful of flour, and subjugate the entire people of America to their will. The arch-deceiver, Brigham, has predicted the time when he is to be the President of the United States, and his Prophet, the vulgar and vile-tongued Heber, tells his auditors that "Bro. Brigham will not only be this, but something more." Of course we are left to guess what is meant by the "something more," but with the history of the past before us, it is no difficult task.

The church leaders are and have been from the first settlement of Utah the arbitrary dictators of everything spiritual and temporal, and it is and has ever been their boast that no man can be elected to office in Utah, or successfully carry out any public business without the aid, or at least the consent of Brigham Young. In fact, he is both Church and State. He has controlled the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Judiciary and almost every department within the precincts of the Territory, and where Federal Officers have failed, to fall in with his plans, has effected their disgrace or removal. He has held the power of life and death over his two-willing subjects. His favorites have been promoted to offices of trust—his enemies consigned to the dungeon, the waters of the Jordan, or the embrace of mother earth. His wealth has purchased the favor of the corruptible and wrought the ruin of the incorruptible.

There are some officials, however, whom Brigham Young never did, never can control, and among them, the present judiciary, who, to their credit be it said, have pursued a course which must meet with the approval of all loyal and upright men. They have preserved alike their own dignity and that of the Government they have the honor to serve. They have never hesitated to decide in accordance with strict justice, so far as the Territorial laws have enabled to do so, regardless alike of friend or foe, and the names of Judge Titus and his worthy associates will ever be spoken in connection with that of General Connor, as those of men whom the Utah hierarchy could neither fathom; control, bribe, nor intimidate.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]
New York, Nov. 16.

A gentleman, who arrived to-day, says that smugglers have been unusually active during the last two or three months. Fuller, who used the name of Senator Harlan, to obtain charge of the money belonging to the National Republican committee, and who has been in the Old Capitol prison for several months, has been released without a trial. A Times special says, Hon. Freeman Clark, comptroller of the currency, is engaged on his report. He will recommend the removal of the National currency bureau to New York. Mr. McCulloch, who made the same recommendation when comptroller, last year, will probably renew the recommendation in his report as Secretary of the Treasury.

Yesterday, the government returned the money from the proceeds of the sale of some confiscated property, in pursuance of section seven of the act of March 3d, 1863. The case in which the money was refunded, is one in which the claimants who were the former owners of the confiscated property, show that they were loyal citizens and supporters of the Union, notwithstanding the facts of the abandonment of their property at the breaking out of the rebellion. The property is located at Alexandria, Virginia. A large number of cases pending are under way.

Contracts are about to be consummated for the mail service in the above State; they will go into effect the 1st of January, 1892, and will expire, June, 1897. The bids made for the service have been largely in excess of the rates formerly in vogue on the same routes. The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular, notifying all the collectors of revenue that he regards it as but a just precaution, that whenever applications are made for storage for foreign or other products within the limits of a town or city, the collector of Internal Revenue should forward to the department a statement that a warehouse is established that will not in case of fire, endanger either the property or lives of people living or doing business in the vicinity.

Nathaniel H. McLean, former Assistant Adjutant-General to Gen. Burnside, who was ordered to the Pacific coast two years ago, as he alleges, to prevent his testifying against Hish, then about to be court-martialed in Cincinnati, is preparing to bring the case before Congress; he promises to throw much light on that transaction.

A Times special says, Gov. Parsons left for home yesterday, with 200 pardons for citizens of Alabama.

Admiral Porter will soon publish a reply to Gen. Banks' strictures on the conduct of the navy Red River campaign.

A Tribune's special says, the President was more than usually annoyed by impudent reconstructionists yesterday. He remarked that he had tried to overwhelm the South with pardons and kindness, but from the turn of events he began to think them incapable of appreciating his magnanimity.

Several efforts have been made to force a bill for reconstruction upon the action of the Navy Department, in ordering off certain United States ships of war. The news is that, steadily, naval vessels have been ordered on foreign and domestic waters. The same is in years before the war, instead of allowing them to be out many yards. Gen. Grant visited the United States last night, and was welcomed by Vice President McKinley, who, after thanking him for his victories, alluded to the foul wrong of the French occupying Mexico. Grant replied, saying there is one sentiment in your address which is mine also—one touching the future of Mexico. This was received with cheers. Speeches were also made by Generals Meade, De Trobriand and others. A grand reception to Grant takes place on Monday.

Mayor Guither, Democrat, was nominated last evening by McKewen Whig; John H. Farman was nominated by what is called the Army and Navy League. The Mobile Register says, Major Hastings, with his colony, will sail from that port for Brazil, on the 2d of December. The emigrants from this country who have arrived at Rio Janeiro, were welcomed by the government and citizens, and were given every encouragement and assistance by the Minister of Agriculture.

Judge Archer L. Hopkins, long distinguished on the bench, and at the bar, died at Mobile on the 8th inst.

New York, Nov. 15.
The San Antonio Express represents an unparalleled drought in Texas; the stock is dying all through Western Texas. The rivers are low.

Per the Montezuma from Kingston, Jamaica. Gen. Ocasio had assumed command of the British troops and the special volunteers. A general outbreak was threatened at Brownstown, arising out of suits of ejectment.

In a fireman's riot in Jersey City this afternoon, several persons were injured; the riot was quelled by the Sheriff. Some arrests were made.

Further accounts from Jamaica state that a disturbance had broken out in Star's Parish; troops had been sent there. Twelve more rebels were hung on the 4th. The gunboat Fawn was also under orders for Cape Haytien. Volunteers were ordered out on the third to suppress the rebellion.

Richmond papers say that at the opening of the United States District Court at Richmond on the 13th, Martin F. Conway was the only lawyer that could be admitted to practice, no others having taken the necessary oath.

The Tribune's special says that the rebels have defeated all the Union candidates in Northern Alabama. Frank B. Gurley, the murderer of Gen. McCook, was elected Sheriff of Madison county and the Rev. J. R. Morris, who declared from the stump that he could not take the oath and that any man who could was a black hearted traitor to the South, was elected to Congress from the Madison District.

The Commercial's Washington letter, says the appointment of Gen. Logan, as Minister to Mexico, is believed here to be based on the promise that the French troops shall be withdrawn from Maximilian's dominions, and at the same time the United States army of observation shall be withdrawn from the Rio Grande, and armed emigration to Mexico be discontinued.

The Post's Washington special says, the President recently decided to issue ratifications to the suffering freedmen in the southern states during the coming winter; also to such whites as may be destitute. The President recently declared that the freedmen shall have full protection in their rights to settle on public lands in Florida and Texas open to pre-emption.

Washington, Nov. 16.
The Government is kept advised on the subject of the cholera abroad. Latest dispatches show it to be disappearing from Ralmeiro and spreading over the Peninsula of Spain and Portugal.

Raleigh, North Carolina, Nov. 15.
The official vote in the 5th Congressional District shows that Hon. Bedford Brown was elected over Haus by a majority of 96 votes.

New York, Nov. 16.
A special to the Herald from Toronto, 16, says, intense excitement prevailed here yesterday. The Government placed troops at the disposal of the Mayor and informed him of the probable early attack on the city, with instructions to take as many prisoners as possible. On Tuesday night, Col. Sowsy's house was pelted with brick-bats. To-day's Ledger says, great preparations are being made, such as posting troops and patrols, doubling the police force, &c., and says the horses of the royal artillery were actually harnessed and held in readiness the night previous. Many discharged soldiers are in the city, and an attack might be looked for.

The Tribune's Fort Smith correspondent says the rebel Chocklaw and Chick saw Indians are waging a terrible persecution against the colored people, since the council held at this place. The Indians are incensed because they must submit to emancipation, and they are determined to find a vent for their malice on the blacks who have been their slaves. They abuse them in every way they can, beating some to death and shooting others. The negroes are coming to this post for protection.
